

SI Academy for Young Professionals (SAYP) at JIBS

Enhancing Governance and Accountability: Towards EU Integration in the Public Sector (EGAP)

MMTC and Jönköping International Business School (JIBS) is proud to host one of the regional modules of the Swedish Institute's Academy for Young Professionals (SAYP), supporting democratic development and public sector transformation across the EU Eastern Partnership region.

Our module, Enhancing Governance and Accountability: Towards EU Integration in the Public Sector (EGAP), is designed for young professionals from Armenia, Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia, Moldova, or Ukraine working in or closely with public administration and municipal governance.

About the Program

Eligibility

You are eligible to apply for the EGAP module if you

- Are a citizen of or resident in one of the following countries: Armenia, Azerbaijan*, Belarus*, Georgia*, Moldova, Ukraine
- Have a good command of English, both spoken and written
- Have a relevant higher education (at least three years of study)
- Are between 25 – 40 (born 1985 – 2000)

- Are currently employed in one of the following groups:
  1. Policymakers (politicians, government officials, employees of political parties)
  2. Public servants (non-political civil servants working at public organisations)
  3. Civil society workers (CSO/NGO employees)
- Have the mandate, ambition and potential to drive change within your organisation and home country
- Your professional profile is relevant for the thematic content of the module of your choice

Country-Specific Eligibility

- Armenia, Moldova, Ukraine

Applicants may come from either civil service or civil society. All applicants must demonstrate a clear commitment to public governance reform.

- Azerbaijan, Belarus, Georgia

Only applicants from civil society are eligible. Applications from civil servants in these countries will not be considered. All applicants must demonstrate a clear commitment to public governance reform.

Application Information

To apply for the EGAP module, please submit the following documents:

1. EUROPASS CV
2. Letter of Reference (use the official SAYP template)
3. Motivation Letter explaining your interest and how you plan to apply your learning
4. English Certificate Template (use the SAYP English certificate template)

Send applications and enquiries to: sayp2025@ju.se

Application Deadline: 26th August

More details and document templates are available at the Swedish Institute website External link, opens in new window.

This program is offered in collaboration with Stockholm School of Economics in Riga, Jönköping Municipality and Moldova State University.

Thanks to funding from the Swedish Institute, this program is offered at no cost to participants, with all expenses— including travel, accommodation, and meals during the on-site module—fully covered.